2007 Winter League.

Match No. 14 & Christmas Comp.

Date: 12th December 2007.

Venue: Staplehurst Reservoir, Kent.

Conditions: Initially very frosty & cold, as the day progressed for those on the sunny side of the reservoir conditions that did improve, just! Those on the shaded side froze!
Very little wind that changing direction during the morning. Water level was back to normal.

Summary: Again it was one of those cold hard days, very little caught; a few bream made the points, most of the other bags were mainly Roach & the odd micro Perch.
Barry lost the only Carp at the net, a fish that was very costly indeed! Despite this he did win the Knock-out. Congratulations to Ralf Cheesman for winning a hard match.
After the Christmas Raffle the poor day dealt its final hand, the infamous 'bad luck demons' decided to jam the gate combo lock. Despite all attempts it would not budge, as it got darker & colder Colin remembered he had a battery drill & cutter in his van & came to the rescue.
Our thanks to Martin Worrall for 'hot footing' it over with a replacement lock.
