2008. "Sid Flood Memorial Roach Only" Comp.

Date: 22nd June 2008.

Venue: River Beult, Cross at Hand, Kent.

Conditions: A cloudy start to the day with a gusty, strong ever changing wind that made fishing interesting. Later in the day the sun appeared making it quite hot.) The River had a slight colour but running at normal level.

Summary: A normal turn out for this event. This time it was decided to try further along the river; into the third field for a change to see what it produced, (quite a walk for some of us!) reports had been coming in that it was fishing OK.

Unfortunately the Roach just didn't materialize in any numbers as had been hoped, still it was worth trying further along the river rather than just the first field, if you don't try these things you won't know.

Again for the majority it was hard work to find the Roach, despite this a few had some good fishing, Kevin having a good day with a mixed bag of Perch, Bream & Tench + a number of reasonable Rudd as well as a couple of Jacks, pity it wasn't a league match! Roy also hit a few Tench with a 4lb + one to top it.
